Water is one of nature's most precious gifts to us. Capture its spirit on paper in a card. Evoke that special moment in which rolling waves cast shimmering drops of saltwater skyward to hang suspended for an instant before rejoining. All you need are a few

ADVENTURE POETRY FANTASY

By being at once both raw and poetic, deep ocean waves exert a powerful fascination over us. Combine both to create a summer greeting card with the aquatic texture of deep ocean waves. Spread some blots of colour, then weave them together by blowing on the wet surface through a straw. Now just dip the Flat Backs from CRYSTALLIZED™ – Swarovski Elements in the fresh colour and let it dry. Your gift will evoke daydreams of seaside adventures in the recipient.

What a wonderful gift to those you love most: This card is as brilliant as it is easy to make. Crystal waves from CRYSTALLIZED™ – Swarovski Elements are affixed beneath a semi-transparent cover – in their motions, they resemble bright reflections on water.

The recipient of your gift will want to shake it over and over again to make it ripple like ocean waves – a gift that soothes the spirit like not other.
